

I believe that the Local Traffic and Weather offered by XM and Sirius is far superior to that offered by local radio and that it would be a disservice to eliminate this service. Frankly I believe that local radio needs to step upto the plate and improve there services rather constantly complain about satellite radio.